Testimonial: JBM Helps Spread Hope and Love

When I first came across JBM, what impressed and inspired me the most, was that one could literally see Janet had changed. Not only through her written testimony, but also through her before and after picture. One can see this is the Lord! This inspired me personally in my conversion, which is still underway (since I can better see what needs to happen and how far I am). I also think that others whom I shared this information with, came to believe this was possible, and enriched their lives in this regard. To the majority, this was new.

Not being a U.S. resident, JBM's internet site and newsletter, have been most helpful on more than one occasion. I have been able to print her testimony and show it to co-workers, friends and Church acquaintances, and I have used it as well for a small local mail out to Churches and ministries in my city. I would love to have Janet come to Calgary, Alberta, Canada to speak. I think she would be a great speaker here, and has wonderful credentials, including having met and talked to President Bush. She is a sought after speaker even in Universities, and I wish there were more openings for such a gifted woman, but especially here... where there are many who have never even heard that change is possible for people who are same-sex attracted.

Thank you for your prayers and encouragement, and may God bless you and your ministry, Janet.
