Spring Edition

Pure Life Ministries Helping Local Young Man

A young man that I've mentored for two years has taken his next step to leaving homosexuality, and has entered into a live-in program for men dealing with sexual addiction—Pure Life Ministries.

The founder, Steve Gallagher said the Lord spoke to him in January 1986, placing a burden on his heart to minister to men struggling with sexual addiction—the horrid sin that had once held him captive. Gallagher launched a local support group which he called Pure Life Ministries.

The Live-In Program is for men who are desperate for freedom and real answers to their sexual addictions. Most of the men who enroll in the program have been sobered by the price of sin, having exhausted all the "easy solutions." Desperate for change and tired of living in defeat, they are ready to hear from God. At the root, illicit sexual behavior is sin and must be treated as such. While enrolled, men will spend their time developing the Spirit-controlled life the New Testament teaches. Their goal is not just the breaking of the power of outward sin, but the complete transformation of a man's life.

JBM has direct contact with Pure Life Ministries, and we'd be happy to help you take the next step and enter into their live-in program.

JBM Updates

"Called Out" is a book written by Janet Boynes that describes her testimony, life story, and how Janet was called out of darkness into the light. The book will be released January 2009, by Strang Communication, owners of Charisma magazine and Creation House.

Please help Janet raise the money needed to get this message published, by donating to the address at left.

We are in need of supportive friends like you. Whether It's ten dollars or a thousand, your support of JBM enables us to keep financially sound and to continue growing as God provides us daily with new opportunities to serve.
