Winter Edition

The Spirit of Giving Toward a Full-Time Ministry

Dear friends,

What an incredible time of year following the celebration of Jesus' birth! As we begin the New Year, Janet Boynes Ministries (JBM) is preparing to broaden our reach throughout the country to support the needs of those struggling with same-sex attraction. Every day in our communities and schools, biblical sexual identity is being attacked and young people are being lied to. More than ever before, we need to bring the message of Freedom and Forgiveness to our world.

Our goal is to partner with churches, provide resources, and minister to those who choose to come out of homosexuality. For every person that has contacted JBM, there are many more that can and will be reached – but only with the financial backing of churches and individuals. We can't do this alone. We need your help!

I, personally, along with churches nationally, have been under attack from activist groups working to shut us down. I can't fight these battles alone, and your support is even more critical to better help those who are hurting.

We ask you to prayerfully make a generous donation. No matter the size and scope, any amount you can give will help our ministry goals. There are two easy ways to contribute:

1. Donate securely online at <http://janetboynesministries.com/donations/>
2. Mail a donation to:
